Debt Transparency Pledge

In an effort to introduce more transparency into local spending and debt obligations, the City of Garland pledges to post details about its bond and debt information on the City website no later than one business day after the public notice of the bond election. This information will include details about the bond package up for vote and current outstanding debt obligations including bonds, certificates of obligation, commercial paper notes and other debt, and the date of the election.

The City also pledges to notify the office of the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts by email at transparency@cpa.state.tx.us when the bond election information has been posted on its website. The email will include a link to the bond election information.
