

Garland Public Servant Award

The Garland Public Servant Award recognizes a City of Garland employee who exemplifies what it means to be a great public servant, and who goes above and beyond to serve the residents of Garland. This could be a police officer, code inspector, waste collector, customer service representative, street crew, or any Garland employee who serves the public. Nominees will be evaluated based on the criteria of public involvement, how the nominee has proven to be a servant leader and reasons why the nominee deserves to receive the Garland Public Servant Award.
